About Guru Nanak Dev University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established at Amritsar, India on November 24, 1969 to commemorate Guru Nanak Dev's birth quincentenary celebrations. The university has marked its emblem across the globe and is continuing its journey of achieving new heights in pursuance of its cherished goals. University Grants Commission (UGC) has granted category -1 status to the university, the only university to get this ELITE STATUS in the region of Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh & Chandigarh. Improving its rank from last year, Guru Nanak Dev University has been ranked 59 in the All – India university ranking released under the national institution ranking framework (NIRF) by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Govt. of India. Guru Nanak Dev University (GNDU) being a State University became the first university to get approval of School of Education. The SOE endeavours to provide programmes of excellence in pre-service and in-service education of prospective and practicing teachers through teaching and learning, research, consultancy, publication and community services.
