regulation to the boarded-out cadets of NDA, for continuation of their studies at Guru Nanak Dev University. It is a great step towards rehabilitation to such cadets to complete their essential qualifications by way of lateral entry into BA/BSc/BEd (Computer Science) and B.Tech (IT)/B.Com programmes at Guru Nanak Dev University."

Lieutenant General Ash Mistry in his message said, "The academy decided to sign MoUs with various reputed universities in consultation with the Headquarters-Integrated Defence Staff (IG-IDS) so as to assist such cadets in transferring their credits. Such a step would remove the fear of uncertainty and academic loss from the minds of young guards capable aspirants."

Prof Hardeep Singh, Dean Academic Affairs, said in order to provide much-needed rehabilitation, the university had approved the provision for the boarded-out NDA cadets to be allowed to get admission in every semester of corresponding course in GNDU and also appointed Dr. Preet Mohinder Singh, BEd, as professor in charge to coordinate with officials of the National Defence Academy.

According to the NDA authorities, around 6,800 cadets have passed out from the academy over the last 10 years. In this period, approximately 2,200 cadets (around 320 cadets) had withdrawn from the academy for not being able to meet the academic goals, outdoor training, discipline standards or due to injuries/medical conditions during the course of training or old medical disorders.

GNDU, NDA SIGN MOU TO HELP BOARDED OUT CADETS

Amritsar, October 19, 2021: Cadets who get boarded out midway of their three-year training at the National Defence Academy (NDA) can now continue studies without losing an academic year.

An Memorandum of Understanding has been signed between Guru Nanak Dev University (Established by State Legislative Act, 1968 & Category I status University) and the National Defence Academy, Pune on 19th October, 2021 in the presence of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof. (Dr.) Jaspal Singh Sandhu, Prof. Hardeep Singh Dean Academic Affairs, Prof. Manoj Kumar, Controller Examination and the Director University Linkage Prof. Dr. Preet Mohinder Singh Bedi Lieutenant General Asit Mishra, PVSM, AVSM, SM, VSM, Commandant, National Defence Academy and Prof. (Dr.) Om Prakash Shukla, Principal, National Defence Academy, Pune.

Prof. Sandhu emphasised that this marks the beginning of a new era of cooperation between GNDU and NDA.

He said, "The objective of this agreement is to provide the much needed migration to the boarded-out cadets of NDA, for continuation of their studies at the Guru Nanak Dev University. It is a great step towards rehabilitation for the out-boarded cadets to complete their essential qualifications by way of lateral entry into BA/BSc/BSc (Computer Science) and B.Tech./BBA/B.Com programs at the Guru Nanak Dev University".

Lieutenant General Asit Mishra in his message said "The academy decided to sign MoUs with various reputed universities in consultation with the Headquarters Integrated Defence Staff (HQIDS), so as to assist the boarded-out cadets in transferring their credits. Such a step would remove the fear of uncertainty and academic loss in the minds of young and capable aspirants" Lieutenant General Asit Mishra also appreciated the efforts of University Industry linkage cell for facilitating this MoU.

Prof. Hardeep Singh Dean Academic Affairs informed that in order to provide much needed rehabilitation, University has approved the provision for the boarded out NDA cadets to be allowed to get admission in even semester of corresponding course in GNDU and also appointed a Dr. Bedi as Professor Incharge to coordinate with the officials of National Defence Academy.

Prof. Dr. Preet Mohinder Singh Bedi, Director University Linkage Cell said that this way Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, striving towards in this noble mission with The National Defence Academy to rehabilitate the upcoming soldiers of the nation through imparting quality education to the missionaries of India - "the cadets" who serve our nation till their last breath.

According to the NDA authorities, around 6,000 cadets have passed out from the academy over the last 10 years. In this period, approximately 2.3% cadets (around 138 cadets) had withdrawn from the academy for not being able to meet the academic goals, outdoor training, discipline standards or due to injuries/medical conditions during the course of training or old medical disorders. The numbers and categories vary every term and year, an NDA official said.

"Over the last 10 years, nearly half of the boarded out cadets did so due to medical reasons. Of those, around 30% were medical disorders such as fits/syncope syndrome among others, which surfaced during training. Others were due to injuries/ailments during training. About 4% were due to inability to meet academic standards and the rest were due to discipline/lack of officer-like qualities and inability to meet the standards of outdoor training," an NDA official said.

Dr. Preet Mohinder Singh Bedi, Coordinator University Industry linkage Programme at GNDU had facilitated this MoU event and concluded the event with a hope that university would work in close collaboration with the National Defence academy to devise pioneering academic strategies to achieve the desired outcomes by actively engaging the stakeholders.
