About Guru Nanak Dev University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established at Amritsar, India on November 24, 1969 to commemorate Guru Nanak Dev's birth quincentenary celebrations. The university has marked its emblem across the globe and is continuing its journey of achieving new heights in pursuance of its cherished goals. University Grants Commission (UGC) has granted category-1 status to the university, the only university to get this ELITE STATUS in the region of Punjab , Haryana, Himachal Pradesh & Chandigarh. Improving its rank from last year, Guru Nanak Dev University has been ranked 59 in the All - India university ranking released under the national institution ranking framework (NIRF) by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Govt. of India. Guru Nanak Dev University (GNDU) being a State University became the first university to get approval of School of Education. The SOE endeavors to provide programmes of excellence in pre-service and in-service education prospective and practicing teachers through teaching and learning, research, consultancy, publication and community services.

About The Workshop

School of Education (PMMMNMTT), of Guru Nanak Dev University is organizing a two days workshop on 'Literature Review' under Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teacher and Teaching. This workshop introduces researchers to the typical structure of the literature review in thesis and article introductions, while accounting for variation in communicative purposes and disciplinary differences. Participants will write or revise a literature review (thesis, dissertation, research article), and receive feedback from the workshop facilitators and other participants. Therefore, this workshop is most useful for those with a research project underway.
