

Guru Nanak Dev University Signs MoU with UiT The Arctic University Of Norway

In a landmark event strengthening bilateral ties in education and research, the Arctic University of Norway (UiT) has inked Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) with Guru Nanak Dev University and five other prominent Indian institutions at the Norwegian Embassy in India. The occasion, marked by a reception hosted by Norway's Ambassador to India, Ms May-Elin Stener, showcased the burgeoning interest in collaborative ventures between Norway and India. The Norwegian delegation led by Prof. Jan-Gunnar Winther, the pro-rector for Research and Development at UiT, whereas Prof. (Dr.) Preet Mohinder Singh Bedi, Dean Students' Welfare represented the Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar. Prof. (Dr.) Jaspal Singh Sandhu Vice-Chancellor Guru Nanak Dev University quoted "Guru Nanak Dev University has been known for delivering research excellence alongside the highest quality education, coupled with our passion for creating an impact on society and our commitment to contributing to Sustainable Development Goals. We are very happy to sign the MoU with UiT and are excited to explore research collaborations with them in diverse areas to solve real-world challenges."

Arctic University of Norway signs MoU with Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar